

Artist Release
Movin Around the World: Virtual

Artist agrees to allow Northwest Folklife to host submitted video on their website(s), social media channels and sites of partners during virtual events and in perpetuity. Northwest Folklife may use submitted content for promotional, marketing, archival, educational and/or fundraising purposes in perpetuity. Any contemplated commercial uses shall require the mutual written consent of both parties. Artist acknowledges that content submitted may be edited, copied, exhibited, published or distributed and hereby waives the right to inspect or approve the finished product. Artist warrants that they own or have the necessary licenses, rights, consents, and permissions to use and authorize Northwest Folklife to include and use the submitted content in the manner contemplated by this Agreement, and that the content will not violate or infringe upon the intellectual property rights, the rights of privacy or publicity, or any other rights of any third party. By submitting video to Northwest Folklife Artist represents that all persons or parties represented in said video have consented to having their image used, and in the case of a minor that consent was given by a legal guardian.